CASE REPORTS

Discrete subpulmonic membrane in transposition of great arteries with an intact ventricular septum
Trushar Gajjar, Nageswar Rao, Neelam Desai ................................................................. 61

Acute massive pulmonary embolism without deep venous thrombosis
Özge Korkmaz, M. Birhan Yılmaz, Sabahattin Göksel, Müslim Gül, Öcal Berkan ................................................................. 64

Cardiac tamponade after pulmonary valvuloplasty for presumed pulmonary valvular stenosis in a patient with double-chambered right ventricle: An unexpected diagnosis during emergency surgery
Gökhan İlhan, Şahin Bozok, Şaban Ergene, Sedat Özcan Karakiş, Hakan Karamustafa, Nebiye Tüfekçi ................................. 67

A rare cause of hematuria and abdominal pain: our clinical experiences with Nutcracker Syndrome
Mehmet Tort, Ümit Arslan, Ziya Yıldız, Eyüp Serhat Çalış, Mehmet Ali Kaygın ................................................................. 71

Onur Işık, Muhammet Akyüz, Mahir Balakishiev, Mehmet Fatih Ayık, Yüksel Atay ................................................................. 74

HOW TO DO IT?

Retrograde passage of radiofrequency catheter for the endovenous ablation of the great saphenous vein:
a modified technique and report of two cases
Cemal Kemaloğlu ......................................................................................................................... 76

Index ................................................................................................................................................ 79
